REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-22 and 25-27 are allowable over the prior art of record.

The examiner had found that the prior art of record does not teach or suggest or render obvious "A method for automatic configuration of a bi-directional Internet protocol communication device to establish an Internet connection: The major differences in the independent claims 1,17,19,22 and 26 are not found in the prior art of record that automatically broadcasting a request from a bi-directional IP communication device for basic configuration details for the IP communication device over an IP network to a remote server. The request contains a MAC address and a unique bi-directional IP communication device identifier stored in the IP communication device and associated with a unique user at the server prior to configuration. Receiving the basic configuration details including an IP address from the server at said device, where the basic configuration details are assigned to the unique user based on the bi-directional IP communication device identifier." as in claim 11,17,19,22 and 26.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance or Examiner Amendment."
